104-06-01-02. Guidelines for a thirty-day trial period.

1. Any purchaser of a hearing instrument or instruments is entitled to a refund of the full purchase price advanced by the purchaser for such instrument or instruments, less a nominal usage charge as hereinafter described, upon the return by the purchaser to the licensee in good working order, normal wear and tear excepted, within thirty days from the date of delivery of such instrument or instruments.
2. Prior to delivery to the purchaser by the licensee of any instrument or instruments, the per day usage charge to which the licensee may be entitled upon the return of such instrument or instruments within the thirty-day period shall be fixed by written agreement. In the absence of such agreement, the licensee is entitled to no more than two dollars per day per instrument for each day the instrument or instruments may be held by the purchaser.
3. The purchaser is entitled, at no cost, to receive a copy of any written agreement as described in subsection 2, which agreement must include the name, address, and phone number of the dealer or fitter.
4. No refund is due the purchaser for charges attributable to earmolds, batteries, hearing tests, or hearing evaluations and other related procedures such as special modifications such as needed for Cros or

Bi-Cros hearing instruments, or any other type of fittings and testing unless such fees exceed fifteen percent of all expenses incurred in the fitting process. Upon request, any fee by the dispenser over the fifteen percent must be returned to the purchaser of the complained of instrument.

History: Effective July 1, 1996.
